

Public Health Women and Children's Affair Awareness Committee

is a platform for exclusively highlighting enormous, neglected and concerning public issues that directly impacts Women and Children's health and wellbeing.

GOALS:

Provide sustained leadership role and to promote primary prevention and public health through campaign initiatives and local and global volunteering.

Evaluates and makes recommendations concerning over health issues, including support for the public health infrastructure, preventive medicine, and health aspects of environmental affairs.

FUNCTIONS:

Advocates preventive care and public education for a healthier community.

Conducts focus-group meetings with to determine their attitudes and preferences as they relate to the evolving local healthcare market

COMPOSITION: The chair is appointed by the President. All other members, through expressed preference upon the desire to actively participate in committee functions and interest in the goals and purpose of the committee.

Advocates and promulgates preventive care and public education for a healthier community.

Meeting dates: Monthly beginning in February. (Subject to change)

PURPOSE AND MISSION

Provide sustained leadership role and to promote primary prevention and health care initiatives that have direct impact on the health of our communities

Consistent with our mission statement and to ensure success we partner with communities, Health care professionals, APPNA members, and Government Officials, Judges, mayors, Congressmen, teachers, Principals, Faith based organizations, to provide education and resources to bring awareness through our programs

HEALTH CARE AWARENESS INITIATIVES:

1- Childhood Obesity Awareness

2- Breast Cancer Awareness Cancer,

3- Child Abuse

4- Smoking Cessation

(initiatives of Department of Public Health such as raising the age of Smoking cessation to 21)

5- Global Vaccination

6- Global Volunteerism through collaboration with other organizations