

Ariba Khan MD MPH

Dr. Khan graduated from Allama Iqbal Medical College in 1996. She completed internal medicine residency and geriatrics fellowship from St Louis University. She completed Masters in Public Health in 2008 from the Medical College of Wisconsin. For past 15 years she has been working at Aurora Health Care in Milwaukee, WI. In the past, she has worked as an academician, researcher, administrator, educator and clinician. She has administrative experience managing Acute Care for Elders (ACE) teams as Medical Director. She has served as Associate Program Director for Geriatrics Fellowship. She has presented her research at the American Geriatrics Society and American Delirium Society national meetings. She has mentored fellows, nurses and residents in their research projects. Most recently she served as editor of a book “Encyclopedia of Elder Care”.

She is vice-chair of American Geriatrics Society “Health system Innovations-Economics and Technology Committee”. At the international level she is co-chair of American Geriatrics Society “International Affairs Special Interest Group”. She is chair of EPIC Geriatrics Steering Committee. (EPIC systems corporation, Verona, WI).

She joined APPNA family as lifetime member on September 13th 2012. She is one of the founding members and past president of Pakistani Society of Wisconsin – which is a chapter of APPNA. She initiated APPNA’s “end polio now” project in 2012. She has served as a member of APPNA’s public health women’s and child affairs committee and Medical Corps. She is on AIMCANA research committee.